Still no meeting, but quite a few of you winter Texans have arrived in the Park and we are glad to see the increased activities. All of you up in the snow country should think about heading down here. Nov. is probably the nicest month we have for good weather. today is 68 low and 81 high, and the the next couple weeks looks just like that,

This note from Al the park manager

Good morning

A couple things to inform our guests

First we will be canceling the photo shoot for the upcoming pictorial. Currently with our Canadian family still unable to travel to their winter homes or destination, and currently low attendance we will look to reschedule in the season per Linda Beem

Gary and Sherry Brink will be doing a Sunday Ice Cream social where they will be coming around the resort with the first one of the Sunday November the 8th at 2-3pm at your door so be looking forward to their arrival not to let them have to wait and also keeping the Ice Cream frozen. Thank you Gary and Sherry for coming forward to doing this for us and everyone loves Ice Cream.

Our first lunch for takeout or delivery to your site will be November 4th and it will be Chili. Please call the office today to place your order for tomorrow's meal.

Donations are still being accepted in the OFFICE for Mr. Adame.

Lupe Villarreal has officially retired from the Tip O Texas we want to wish him well

Safe travels to all and looking forward to seeing you all soon

Al

Good morning Dave

I see I am too late to attach to our other note

But wanted to say we are now open on the weekend Saturday 8-5 and Sunday 12-4

You all can come anytime now to update your files and info please do at your earliest convenience

We still have the box to accept donations to the Adame family in the office, thank you so much for all who have donated they truly appreciated it as they picked it up Friday

Safe travels to all heading this direction and please please don't include any of that white stuff in your vehicle, pictures are accepted but the real stuff NAH just be safe

Pam's Notes

Marge Johnson sent these notes:

Deb Scheibel called a couple days ago to let us know that Henry had fallen backwards as he was going into his house and hit his head on the car hood, fracturing C1 vertebrae, the first vertebrae in his neck. He is in the hospital and will be there for some time, as he has to wear a neck brace for 12 weeks. He was getting so excited about coming to the Tip just after November 1. I spoke with him this morning and he asked for prayers and to say hello to everyone, and that he'll miss them.

If you'd like to send a card, his address is:

Henry Scheibel
C/O Olivia Hospital and Clinic
100 Healthy Way
Olivia, MN 56277

I just spoke again with Henry's daughter and she said that when she first called me the other day, she had said he fractured C1, but it is C2, if it makes any difference to anyone. He also has some artery blockage and a low hemoglobin, so pray they get that taken care of, too, and maybe he can still come down for a short period.

Let us keep Henry in our prayers for a complete recovery.

Not to rub salt into a wound, but the weather here has been perfect. Cool in the evening and warm and sunny during the day. It has been in the low 80's this week. Hoping this will entice some of you to join us.

Please stay safe and remember to vote today. Have a good week and keep those prayers coming for all of us. Pam
